Details

Not to be confused with the Bunker Hill Day Parade, the Battle of Bunker Hill Service & Commemoration is scheduled on the anniversary of the battle fought on June 17, 1775. The ecumenical service will pay tribute to those who made the ultimate sacrifice in securing liberty in defense of tyranny on that day. These selfless acts were the seeds that grew into a new nation. Following a procession to the Bunker Hill Monument, you will be delighted by the orations of historians and of Her Excellency, Maura Healey, Governor of Massachusetts. This is a day of historic reflection and ponderance.

- Parking: The streets of Charlestown are narrow and street parking is very limited around the St. Francis de Sales Church, 303 Bunker Hill Street.
- Parade: The procession will commence following the Ecumenical Service held at the St. Francis de Sales Church.
- Distance: Approximately 0.5 miles
- Transportation: A trolley is available for the procession to the Monument. Space is limited.

The Battle of Bunker Hill Commemoration Committee reminds us:

- The procession will begin immediately following the Ecumenical Service at 1:30 PM.
- The roads on and around the procession route are expected to be closed or redirected due to this event
- Handing out flyers or any other promotional material is strictly prohibited
- Political statements or other expressions are strictly prohibited

Don't forget your Top Hat
